at which time the bids will be opened.

The proposals must be addressed to the "Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, Naug Department, Washington," and must be indorsed "Froposals for Timber, &c., for the Naug," that they may be distinguished from ordinary business letters. they may be distinguished from ordinary business letters.

To prevent confusion, and facilitate the opening of the bide, parties bidding for supplies at several parts will enclose their bids in separate envelopes for each part, indersed with the name of the pard for which the bid is made.

Printed schedules for such classes as parties deal in and intend to bid for, together with instructions to bidders, giving the forms of proposal, of guarantee, and of certificate of guarantors, with printed forms of offer, will be furnished to such persons as desire to bid, on application to the Commandants of the respective Navy Yards, and those of all the yards on application to the Burech.

to bid may judge whether it is desirable to make application for any of the classes of those yards. The proposals must be for the whole of a class; but the Department reserves the right to reduce the whole class, should the interest of the Government require it, before the execution of the contract. All applications for information, or for the examination of samples, must be made to the Commandants of the respective yards. Bids or ofers with or received only from parties who are bone fide declers in, or manufacturers of, the articles they offer to furnish. The guarantors must be certified by the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which they reside.

The contract will be awarded to the person who makes the lewest bid and gives the guarantee required by law, the Navy Department, however, reserving the right to reject the lowest bid, or any which it may deem exorbitant.

Inder the provisions of section 3722 of the Revised Statutes, the ofter of any person who, as principal or surety, has been a defoulter in any previous contract with the Navy Department will not be received.

Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the centract, and their responsibility must be certified to the satisfaction of the Navy Department will not be received.

As additional security twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contracts shall have been completed, and eighty per centum of the amount of each bill, approved in triplicate by the Commandants of the respective yards, will be paid by the Paymaster of the station designated in the contract, or, if none is specified, by the Paymaster of the station nearest the yard where the goods are delivered, within ten days after the warrant for the same shall have been passed by the Secretary of the Treasury.
